

Gifts in memory

Giving a gift in memory is a very special way to remember a loved one. It honours their memory while giving hope to others who have dementia.

Donations in memory of loved ones are very special gifts and, as such, are deeply appreciated by Alzheimer's Society. Your gift will help us to carry out research and to provide vital services to help people with dementia and those who care for them.

Thank you for thinking of Alzheimer's Society at this time. If you need any support or assistance, the in memory team is here to help.
