Further information

Just hours before the world's top cyclists race the RideLondon Classic, 20,000 cyclists will have the chance to cycle a modified version of the London 2012 Olympic Road Race. This new event offers a unique opportunity to become part of cycling history. Celebrating the legacy for cycling created by London 2012, RideLondon 100 will start in the new Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, then follow the closed roads through the capital and onto Surrey's stunning country roads and hills. With leg-testing climbs and a route recently made famous by the world's best cyclists, this promises to be truly spectacular event for all involved.
