

Flashback Fundraising Ideas

Baby Boomers

Get everyone to bring in a baby picture of themselves, then ask people to make a donation to guess who is who! With a small prize for those that correctly guess them all.

Flashback Lunch

Hold a bring and share lunch, everybody brings in their favourite retro/childhood dish and then people can make a donation to tuck in and reminisce!

Retro Raffle

Get a collection of retro prizes, think old school sweets, classic bakes and retro games -think yoyos, rubix cubes, people can purchase raffle tickets for a small donation.

Guess the birth year

Pick some famous faces and ask people to guess their year of birth, for a donation most right gets a prize.

Guess the year

Pick some historical events and write them onto cards (each event on a different card). Put the year they happened onto separate cards. Challenge friends, family or colleagues to match all the years and events correctly. Ask for a donation from those taking part and award a small prize if they can guess every single one correctly.

Flashback photos

Reminisce on some memories by recreating your favourite photos from the past. Post them to your social media accounts along with the following message 'I'm Flashing back in support of Alzheimer's Society. Don't forget to tag us @alzheimerssoc #flashback19

Office Jukebox

Have a day or afternoon of music, get a speaker and see if someone has a music streaming account you can use, then let colleagues pick their favourite throwback tune to play for a donation

Playground Olympics

Set up a collection of playtime events, think skipping race, conkers tournament, spinning top battle. Have friends, family and colleagues compete for a donation with playground pride being their prize. Why not run sweepstakes on the events to increase your fundraising and step up the competition!

Tie-dye party

Flashback to the 60's with a tie-dye t-shirt party, invite friends and family, ask them to bring a plain t-shirt or item of clothing and get tie-dying! Ask them for a donation to take part in the fun!

Ice cream bar

Get some large tubs of ice cream - think original flavors vanilla, chocolate, strawberry, along with some toppings, sprinkles, nuts, flakes. Ask for a donation in return for people to create their own sweet treats!
